Susie's Story

Susie Carder started with one salon and health spa and built it into one of the most successful businesses in the country. She then founded and sold three profitable companies, the last of which sold for eight figures to Cengage.

Susie soon became passionate about helping other business owners achieve what came naturally to her - growth and sustainability. As she led business after business to success, the true test of her talents came unexpectedly. A serious car accident threatened Susie's life and instantly took her away from her business. As she took time off for surgery and healing, something incredible happened behind the scenes. Not only did her business stay afloat, it expanded tenfold.
